Ruairi Finnegan - Irish Wedding DJ

ABOUT IRISH WEDDING DJ

It started in 2006. A sunny day in Dunboyne Castle Hotel. A venue that shared it's first day in business with ourselves. I went into that same event with the same outlook that I use today.

Be the best you can be, try and add more to the one ahead than the one you've done before and I feel that this philosophy has been the reason that Irish Wedding DJ is set aside from every other business of the same nature.

Part of it was winging it, and trying to be up there with the rest but it's now 2011, and five years later we are the most highly recommended disc jockey company online, a title that I am very proud to say is the result of lots of hard work and dedication and of course - a lot of trust from every bride and groom that took the time to choose us as part of their special day.

Achievements

Shortlisted "Wedding DJ of the Year 2011 by WeddingsOnline Users

In 2011 we were shortlisted by users of weddingsonline as Wedding DJ of the Year. There were four companies in the shortlist so this is a huge achievement for us and a huge boost for the business.
